Alexandra (Alex) Roskowinski's practice focuses primarily on Civil Litigation

Alex believes that compassion is the cornerstone of successful legal representation. Prior to law school, Alex worked at the U.S. Department of State on a range of consular issues from cases of international parental child abduction to emergency passport issuance. She now brings her public service background to her legal practice, where she enjoys working with clients facing challenging situations.

Alex earned her law degree, cum laude, from George Mason University School of Law, and successfully completed a Concentration in Tax Law. She received her B.A. in Government and Politics from the University of Maryland, College Park.
