Natey's practice focuses on Family Law.

She brings to her practice the same compassionate advocacy, zeal, and competence she brought to her indigent clients while serving as an assistant public defender at the Fredericksburg Public Defender's Office.

During law school Natey worked as a student attorney in the Community Legal Practice Center and spent her summers interning at the Norfolk Commonwealth Attorney's Office and the 21st Judicial District Attorney's Office in Franklin, Tennessee.

Natey received her J.D. from Washington and Lee University School of Law and received her B.A., cum laude, from Rhodes College.
