Staci Figueroa is committed to compassionately and skillfully guiding individuals through the intricate landscape of family law matters. Her practice is centered around providing expert representation in a range of legal areas, including custody and visitation issues, child support, spousal support, equitable distribution, and the preparation of marital settlement agreements and prenuptial agreements.

Staci's capabilities extend beyond the initial trial stages of cases to encompass appeals, where she leverages her legal acumen to uphold the rights and interests of her clients at higher levels of the judicial process.

Staci understands the sensitive nature of family law cases and ensures that clients feel heard, respected, and understood throughout the entire legal process. Whether navigating complex equitable distribution issues or sensitive custody matters, Staci works tirelessly to achieve positive outcomes for her clients.

Staci earned her law degree from William & Mary Law School, where she was an Articles Editor for the William & Mary Bill of Rights Journal, and she earned her B.A. from The Louisiana Scholars' College at Northwestern State University.
