

Thomas F.X. Walsh

Associate

d. 703-691-1235

o. 703-691-1235

f. 703-691-3913

twalsh@bklawva.com

Thomas' practice focuses primarily on Civil Litigation, Eminent Domain and Land Use. Thomas has represented condemnors and landowners across the Commonwealth in both the courtroom and mediation. In addition to the Eminent Domain work, Thomas has represented local governments and landowners in various Land Use litigation, including zoning enforcement, rezoning, torts affecting real estate, erroneous assessments, and landlord-tenant actions."

Prior to joining Blankingship & Keith, Thomas served as a Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Tracy C. Hudson at the Prince William County Circuit Court of Virginia, where he provided critical research and offered recommendations on both civil and criminal cases.

In addition to his legal career, Thomas served as an Armor Officer in the U.S. Regular Army and Pennsylvania Army National Guard. Thomas was primarily a tank commander and leader of tank formations, managing logistics and personnel of over 200 soldiers. From his military experience, Thomas maintains the importance of interpersonal relationships and listening in achieving common goals and not losing sight of the larger battles within each minor conflict point.

Practice Areas

- Civil Litigation
- Land Use and Development

- Eminent Domain and Condemnation

Education

- The Catholic University of America Columbus School of Law (J.D., cum laude)
- Providence College (B.S. in Biology)

Bar Admissions

- Virginia Bar
- Eastern District of Virginia

Representative Cases

Land Use and Development

- Secured favorable settlement terms for a client in a land use dispute involving a contested easement and ongoing neighbor encroachment.